"For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable." - Romans 11:29 God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone.

CWL - Old and new members! My name is Shannon Chapple and I would like to invite one and all to support this important ministry at Holy Rosary. We provide support to many different groups in our parish and diocese. Currently our main focus has been the funeral and catering ministries. I'd like to broaden our horizons to include much-needed fundraising for our parish. I want this to be an opportunity for our faith to grow, make new friendships, and to help those in need. So in this upcoming year, please consider joining the CWL. We meet once a month: first Saturday after the 9 am mass in the O'Neil room. Come join us this September 2 @9:30. Hope to see many faces! God bless!

Shannon Chapple, Holy Rosary CWL President.

TF48: How To Be A Theologian

Welcome to another episode of Thinking Faith. This week we bring you another excerpt from a series of presentations Brett delivered a while ago to the new seminarians of the Archdiocese of Edmonton. In this episode, Brett discusses the role and place of theology in the lives of all of the faithful, what might be called a 'universal call to theology'. This is a recognition that every human being who has ever wondered about their reason for being, their place in the universe, if there is a God and, like Mary 'pondered these things in our hearts' we are entering into the spiritual space of theology. <http://thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/tf48-how-to-be-a-theologian>

Father John Weckend is running once again in the Queen City Marathon on September 17, as part of the Relay Team "Holey Soles". He is raising money on behalf of Visitation House and is looking for sponsorship. Money will be collected at the back of the church, next Sunday, August 27.
