Holy Rosary Finances

Hello fellow parishioners,

Here is your report on last week's collections.

Amount collected March 4: $7,617

Remaining collection needed for break-even: $394,121

Weekly amount needed for each of next 43 Sundays:

$9,166

Your finance team,

Jim Hall, Paul Malone and John Dipple

Note: Please remember our cathedral in your estate planning.

Today is Laetare Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Lent. The name comes from the opening words of the Introit for the mass of the day: Rejoice, O Jerusalem. Or, Laetare Jerusalem. On this day, flowers are once again permitted at the altar, and the organ may be used as a solo instrument. This Sunday is considered to be a day of relaxation from normal Lenten rigours; a day of hope with Easter at last within sight!

LENTEN MISSION HEALING TOUCH OF JESUS

MARK your calendars for a Lenten Mission with Archbishop Emeritus James Weisgerber on March 21, 22 and 23 at 7:00 PM at the Holy Rosary Cathedral Church. On Friday March 23, the mission will end with opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Adoration.

URGENT: Children's Liturgy is in desperate need of teachers. They are down to two and will be down to 1 come February and the program cannot run without three to four teachers. Please prayerfully consider helping with this important and rewarding ministry. Contact Miri Schiller at mirijael@hotmail.com or 306-550-7518.

Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace

- in 1967 the Canadian Bishops saw fit to create 'The Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace' (D&P) for 2 reasons: one, to educate Canadian Catholics about their responsibilities to help change the world so that all communities would have food, clothing, shelter, fair work, education and peace. Two, to call on Canadian Catholics to share their wealth with these communities all around the world. With that mandate, countless volunteers have been working in our parishes and schools for over 50 years in educating us about issues in the Global South and in inviting people to share their wealth. The Fifth Sunday of Lent, is the one major Sunday that has been mandated as the Sunday that all parishes in Canada celebrate "Solidarity Sunday" asking us all to give generously. A second collection will be held on Sunday March 18 for Solidarity Sunday. Please find Archbishop Don Bolen's letter and a 'Share Lent' envelope included in today's bulletin. Please take them home, read the letter and bring the envelope back with your donation on Sunday March 18th. Thank you! Bernadette Kutarna, Holy Rosary Cathedral Parish Volunteer for D&P. Marian devotion of Prayer at Holy Rosary Cathedral is continuing. At 2:00 pm on Wednesdays, this Cenacle of Prayer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary will gather in the Church. (Please enter by the East door closest to the Sacristy). The purpose of this weekly, one hour devotion is to receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit through our prayers and consecration to the Immaculate Heart. Our Lady has requested that these Cenacles be formed in our Churches and our homes; that we might receive her protection, her healing and graces for our own spiritual conversion. For further information contact Loretta @ 306-559-0673.

share lent 2018

To the Pastor / Pastoral Associate/ Faithful of the Archdiocese of Regina
(To be read on the 3rd Sunday in Lent: March 3rd & 4th)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The theme of this year's Share Lent campaign is Together for Peace. How much the world indeed needs us to be together for peace!

The day before he died, Christ himself prayed for peace. Through profound prayer, he expressed his mission of bringing peace to our world, reconciling us to the Father and to one another. As disciples of Christ, we are to become peace-makers in our homes, parishes, and communities. We are also invited to help other nations to build peace and reconciliation amongst their people.

Development and Peace's materials can help us to do this by deepening our understanding of peace-building through dialogue and reconciliation. The continuum of dialogue to reconciliation and peace can require courage; especially when there is a power imbalance. This is often the case for people in the Global South who seek justice in a peaceful manner. The Share Lent materials feature four partner organizations who have taken up this challenge with integrity and faith.

We are introduced to initiatives in Peru, Cambodia and Nigeria where people are learning about their legal rights regarding the environment, housing and ancestral lands. Empowered with truth, community and a desire for justice and peace, they enter into dialogue with forces seemingly much bigger than them.

In Lebanon, Development and Peace supports an organization called Adyan (meaning 'religions'). Adyan brings together young people of diverse backgrounds. Often, it is the first time they are meeting people from a different religious community. Through these encounters, they learn about the escalation of violence due to fanaticism. By dialoguing with one another, they come to see how their religions are to be sources of peace-building and working for the common good of their country. Nayla Tabbara (co-founder of Adyan) emphasizes the need for spiritual solidarity, where we "carry the other within."

This Lent, how can we "carry the other within," holding in our hearts and prayers people that we don't know well enough? What practices can we live that carry on throughout the year? We know too well the challenges of peace-building within our families and neighbourhoods; between people of different races, cultures and religions. Can we seek out those who are different from us? Through dialogue, can we achieve understanding and reconciliation? We can be examples of peace-building for our families and communities.

In two weeks' time, on March 17th and 18th, our annual Share Lent collection will be taken up. I ask you to please be generous in donating to Development and Peace so that people's courage is strengthened by our solidarity with them. In our sharing we are joining 'together for peace' with our sisters and brothers around the world.

Grace and peace,

✠ Donald J. Bolen
Archbishop of Regina

PEACE PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen
