O God, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, have conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

“Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth.” Colossians 3:

Do you put God first in all things? Possessions, money, power, ego can easily become gods to many of us. Do a quick check of what is important to you. Is God at the very top of the list? If not, your priorities need to be re-adjusted. Don't let earthly things become a god before God. This is also the first commandment – I am the Lord your God, you shall not have any strange gods before me.

NOTE: The parish office will be closed on Monday, April 10.

SOCIAL JUSTICE "To Celebrate with Thanks!!!!"

CALLING ALL LAY FORMATION ALUMNI

A small group of recent Lay Formation Program graduates have come together to create a Lay Formation Alumni. We all shared a very important and life-affirming journey in the program. We share new skills and knowledge acquired in the program, and an ember has been carefully lit in each of us. The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation program has been working continuously since 1983. Since then, 591 people have been commissioned through the program, but unfortunately, we do not have contact information for everybody. If you are interested in being part of the Lay Formation Alumni, send your contact information to Aseret Ruiz at: Email: Aseret.ruizp@outlook.com or Cell: 306-201-6317. SAVE THE DATE: We are planning an Alumni gathering Saturday, June 17, in Regina at Campion College.

A Word About Trauma...

Trauma and associated words are being used more now than ever. Do we know the origins of these words? Are their meanings different now than when they were first used? Each week we will explore a trauma-associated word's origins, meanings and evolution.

Shame: (SHam) Noun

A painful feeling of humiliation Verb: - used as an object - to cause or force humiliation. From old English scamu or sceomu "painful feeling of guilt or disgrace" by C 1300 "modesty, shyness, regard for propriety, or decency" in mid-13c "inflict disgrace or dishonour upon" by 1580s evolved to "thing or person to be ashamed of" Shame can be described as a negative emotion that may involve pervasive and destructive beliefs about yourself and your sense of self, leading to feeling worthless or inferior—trauma and shame or closely linked. Intimate partner violence or childhood abuse or neglect, and sexual violence are associated with greater feelings of shame.

The Catholic hospital chaplains at the Regina facilities are seeking volunteers with the time and gifts to be able to serve as relief chaplains. Ideally, you would have taken at least one unit of CPE (Clinical Pastoral Education) or be willing to enroll in the near future. TF#343: Dr. Brett Salkeld and Michael Raney on Conversion and Music - Part 1

This week on Thinking Faith, Dr. Brett talks with Michael Raney, a convert from Seventh Day Adventism and director of music at St. Paul's Co. Cathedral in Saskatoon. They discuss Michael's journey to Catholicism and his experiences with church music.

Show Snippet: "I grew up in a Catholic family, but I never really felt like I had a personal relationship with God. It wasn't until my early 20s that I started exploring different religions and spiritual practices. I was searching for something that would fill the void I felt inside."

LESSON EIGHTEEN

FAQ: Does the Catechism remove the content of faith too much from the lived Christian life?

The largest portion of the Catechism treats the content of the faith (Book One), but the second largest treats the moral life (Book Three). The relationship between what one believes and how one behaves on account of that belief is clear in the Catechism. It is evident in the sections on social teachings. Faith is presented as more than the systematic knowledge of doctrine. Each section of the Catechism should be read in light of the whole, and the relationship between faith and life needs to be demonstrated continually so that the transforming power of the Christian message might be evident.
