Almighty ever-living God, who, as an example of humility for the human race to follow, caused our Savior to take flesh and submit to the Cross, graciously grant that we may heed his lesson of patient suffering and so merit a share in his Resurrection. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

"... I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me." (Luke 22:34)

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about God or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet not to cause a disturbance? Or, because you don't want people to think negatively about you? Or, because you don't think you know enough about the Catholic faith? Pray for the courage to speak up and enter into a respectful dialogue when the opportunity arises. Joyfully share your faith with others.

Did you know... "First Nations' people consider spirituality an integral part of life. Prayer is a form of communicating with the Creator. Prayer is taught to the young by grandparents and parents. Prayer is also a means of giving thanks to the Creator for all of life's gifts. Through prayer, you are asking the Creator for a good life, good health, good luck, protection, safety, successful parenting, happiness, and strength." (Cultural Teachings: First Nations Protocols and Methodologies, SICC, p.14).

TF291: Galileo And Robert Bellarmine With Brett Fawcett - Part 2

In this part 2 of 2, guest Brett Fawcett joins the podcast from his balcony in China to discuss the theology of Galileo and the scientific philosophy of his compatriot, St. Robert Bellarmine. Show Snippet: "Galileo makes a really interesting point in his letter where he talks about how, in the Book of Job there's a line that says... 'God hangs the Earth on nothing'...and he quotes theologians like Thomas Aquinas who say 'Yeah it's true that the Bible in Job says that the Earth is hanging on nothing, but that's not literal. The Bible's not trying to teach us about science...'"
