April 8, 2018 - 2nd Sunday of Easter

"The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own..." - Acts 4:32

All that we are and all that we have is a gift from God! Think of your family, your friends, your talents, your abilities and your money - these are all gifts from God! We aren't really owners of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has blessed us with.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH!

Our Easter Hope

Christ is Risen! Alleluia! Alleluia! And we just can't wait to celebrate with a special Easter Edition of Thinking Faith! This week we reflect on the readings of Easter Sunday and their call to a new, resurrected hope. Hope is one of those funny words which gets tossed around, more often than not, as a sort of wishing or dreaming. But, as one of our theological virtues, hope takes on a very different connotation. What exactly is Christian hope, and how can we live this out in our daily lives? Find out this Easter Week on Thinking Faith!

The purpose of this weekly, one hour devotion is to receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit through our prayers and consecration to the Immaculate Heart. Our Lady has requested that these Cenacles be formed in our Churches and our homes; that we might receive her protection, her healing and graces for our own spiritual conversion. PEACE PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much
seek to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen
