"For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy." (LUKE 1:44)

When you hear the scripture readings and Gospel reading at Mass, do you "leap for joy?" If not, don't blame the lecturer or priest, rather look inside yourself. What are you doing to grow in friendship with Jesus? How do you prepare for Mass each week? Do you just show up and expect to be entertained? As the Body of Christ, we are called to be active participants, not just passive observers.

PARISH BOOKKEEPER

Holy Rosary Parish is looking for a part-time parish bookkeeper, experienced with Online QuickBooks. We estimate this will require 10-15 hours per week. Salary range: $20-$30 per hour, depending on qualifications and experience. If you are interested, please contact Ana Harris at the parish office (306 565-0909) before December 31st.

2023 PARISH FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The parish financial statements for 2023 were recently finalized and the required Charity Return was filed with the Canada Revenue Agency. Our parish ended 2023 with a small surplus of $3,300 in our operating fund based on donations and other revenue of $442,470 and expenses of $439,160. Our building fund paid $246,600 for building repairs and accessibility upgrading.

If you would like to receive a copy of the parish financial statements, please contact Ana Harris at the parish office. Heartfelt thanks for your continued support of our parish.

2024 COLLECTIONS UPDATE

Our parish Mass collections budget for this year is $408,000, to help meet our expected expenses and "break even" for the year.

We are full of gratitude that Holy Rosary parishioners and visitors generously gave $358,000 over the first 11 months of the year. We would have needed an additional $16,000 to meet our Mass collections budget for that time period.

Please prayerfully consider adding what you can to your Holy Rosary financial support in order to help our parish meet our collection budget by the end of the year.

Heartfelt thanks for your continued support of our parish.

2025 OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

The 2025 church offering envelopes are ready and available at the front entrance of the church. For new parishioners, if you would like envelopes, you can fill out the forms that are at the east side and front entrances of the church. Thank you.

ADVENT 2024

Mary sets out "with haste" to visit her relative Elizabeth. We know that Mary was "much perplexed" by Gabriel's visit. But her reply to the angel had been simply, "let it be with me according to your word."

A young, perplexed woman facing a life change that seems beyond her chooses to set out on a long journey to stay with an older woman whose guidance and comfort she needs. In moments of overwhelming experience do we not still turn to one another, and do we not feel, like Elizabeth, that through confessing our powerful feelings we can become "filled with the Holy Spirit"?

The child in Elizabeth's womb "leaped for joy." Mary's Song of Praise that follows this beautiful meeting with Elizabeth repeats in a spectacular way the shift she felt above her confusion: "my spirit rejoices in God my Savior."

Our faithful connections with one another, maybe especially at such a grace-filled time as Advent, can remind us that indeed "the Mighty One has done great things" for us. Our gatherings this holy season, in church and in our homes—wherever we go—can move us from doubt and fear to celebration... Shannon

JUBILEE 2025

As we join the global Catholic Church in celebrating the Jubilee Year, "Pilgrims of Hope," we are invited to mark this special time of grace and renewal in unity and prayer. The Jubilee will begin with opening Masses celebrated simultaneously on December 29, 2024, at Holy Rosary Cathedral in Regina with Bishop Emeritus James Weisgerber and at Our Lady of Assumption Co-Cathedral in Gravelbourg with Archbishop Donald Bolen.

HRC NOW ACCEPTS INTERAC E-TRANSFER

You can send your donations and mass offerings to us directly. Please utilize the message portion for transfer details and your mailing address and send it to holyrosary@myaccess.ca. Your e-donation will be included in your annual tax receipt. Thank you for your continuing support of our parish.

*Merry Christmas
Happy New Year*

Christmas Greetings from Archbishop Don

Warm greetings to you all as we prepare to celebrate the Lord's birth in this tumultuous year of 2024. I want to start with a couple of quotes which have been meaningful to me over the years, and which aren't very Christmassy, but they do set a framework for understanding what Christmas and the Incarnation bring to us. The first is from the great American writer Annie Dillard, who in processing a very harsh experience, writes: "it is late, a late time to be living."

In the midst of the wars which continue on relentlessly in our world, the over 100 million refugees and displaced persons, amidst the deep and polarizing differences which only seem to be getting more entrenched throughout the Western world, it does seem like a late, late time to be living.

The other quote comes from C. S. Lewis, who is writing about the impact of his mother's death when he was still a child: "With my mother's death all settled happiness, all that was tranquil and reliable, disappeared from my life. There was to be much fun, many pleasures... but no more of the old security. It was sea and islands now; the great continent had sunk like Atlantis."

I offer those reflections because I think they help name the experience today that the foundations on which our society, and indeed our world, have been built upon, now seem very shaky. The collective values which have sought to uphold human dignity and the value of each human person, advancing in some ways, are deeply threatened in others. Trying to describe this moment in history, C. S. Lewis's words come to mind: it is all sea and islands now.

But faith offers a different kind of foundation, not rooted in a general and perhaps naive sense that things are ever progressing in a good direction. Rather, faith grounds us in God's capacity and desire to enter into our history in all its struggles, and bring a different kind of transformation. The birth of Jesus, the coming of God in the flesh, proclaims God's desire to be near us, to walk with us, to show us a face of incredible mercy and great tenderness. This is the foundation on which we can live with hope and joy, despite shakiness of the moral and political landscape with which we live. I am sure that at the time of Jesus's birth, in the midst of tremendous political instability and oppression, it also felt like a late time to be living. The fact is, God has created us to live here and now, trusting that God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, is here with us in the mess and fray, in this time and place.

Finally, I invite you to consider one more thing, which has to do with the way that God has come into the world in Jesus. If you were all powerful and trying to change the world, trying to bring about a kingdom of peace and justice, seeking to create a communion of joy among all peoples, would you do so by sending a baby into the world? Would you step aside from your power and might and send yourself in vulnerability and hiddenness?

This is what God does. This is who our God is. This is how God is revealed to us. In the most intimate, tender, vulnerable way imaginable. God has come to walk with us. This Christmas season, I invite you to ponder that, and to reflect upon the incredible mercy and compassion that is revealed there. And put a hold on all temptations to discouragement or despair. And look at what God is doing. Then trust in that, find joy in that, and try to do things God's way, to live and act in the way God opens up before us, with great trust and hope, joy and mercy.

Merry Christmas to you all! May you know the great blessings of the Christ Child!

Bishop Donald Bolen
