God, author of every mercy and of all goodness, who in fasting, prayer and almsgiving have shown us a remedy for sin, look graciously on this confession of our lowliness, that we, who are bowed down by our conscience, may always be lifted up by your mercy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again." John 4:13 Jesus reminds us that material things, even something as basic as water, can never satisfy us over the long run. When we build our lives around material possessions we will always want more and no amount will ever satisfy our desire. True joy and peace only comes when we follow Jesus - when we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

Bulletin

March 12, 2023

3rd Sunday of Lent

A Word About Trauma...

Trauma and associated words are being used more now than ever. Do we know the origins of these words? Are their meanings different now than when they were first used? Each week we will explore a trauma-associated word's origins, meanings and evolution.

Terror

ter·ror /'terər/ a noun.

Terror comes into English in the late fourteenth century, partly from Old French terreur and partly directly from Latin terror from terrere 'frighten.' The word means both "the state of being greatly frightened" and "the cause of that state," leading to the definition being intense or overwhelming fear or extreme fear.

Please join us for Chemin de croix exprimé par la voix des victimes:

Soutenir les victimes d'abus sexuels cléricaux Friday March 17th at 6pm either in person or via Live stream from St. Jean Baptiste located at 2517 -25th avenue Regina. ### Pope Francis' Monthly Prayer Intentions - March For Victims of Abuse

We pray for those who have suffered harm from members of the Church; may they find within the Church herself a concrete response to their pain and suffering.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again." John 4:13

When we build our lives around material possessions we will always want more and no amount will ever satisfy our desire. True joy and peace only comes when we follow Jesus - when we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

The courage to Create Hope

To delegates at the 4th World Meeting of Popular Movements, Pope Francis said, "...you have the ability and the courage to create hope where there appears to be only waste and exclusion."

These are the words that inspired the choice of "Create Hope" as a five-year guiding theme at Development and Peace — Caritas Canada.

The courage to Create Hope is rooted in actions big and small. For to drive away anguish and despair, it is best to act. Every action we take has a positive effect on us, our neighbours, our great human family, our children and their descendants. What will you do this Lent to Create Hope? Join our campaign at devp.org/lent.

LESSON FOURTEEN

FAQ: Does the Catechism discourage searching and questioning; because, it is not written in an apologetic style, but in a declarative and expository way?

The Catechism provides the content of the faith in a comprehensive and summary fashion, with a positive and explanatory manner. In this sense, it answers many questions about doctrine in a clear and unambiguous way. On the other hand, however, the Catechism recognizes that faith is an ongoing journey on which questions and doubts come naturally and need to be addressed at the opportune moment. The Catechism - far from pre-empting discussion - provides accurate information with which to carry on informed discussion.

Read the Catechism Text: CCC#'s 202 & 260.

Sacred Scripture: Psalm 102.25-27, Hebrews 13.7 & 8, James 1.17 & 18,

Pope Francis: "The virtue of perseverance reflects to the world the unchanging love of God." Angelus November 13, 2022.
