Almighty ever-living God, who governs all things, both in heaven and on earth, mercifully hear the pleading of your people and bestow your peace on our times. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

“Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb...”Isaiah 49:5

God has given each of us different gifts. In order for God’s plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do, and I have to do what God is calling me to do.

And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don’t let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.

Ecumenical Log Drivers:

Forming Agents of Reconciliation for Church and World The 2023 De Margerie Lectures on Christian Reconciliation and Unity

Rt. Rev. Bruce Myers, OGS (Anglican Bishop of Quebec)
In the past century the ecumenical movement has made extraordinary efforts in healing the wounds of division in the church. However, despite efforts to educate and inspire successive generations of Christian leaders about the quest for the church's visible unity, an ecumenical malaise has set in which ignorance, fear, mistrust, suspicion, stereotypes, caricatures, recrimination, anathematization—even persecution continue in the relations between divided churches. Drawing on decades of reflection on ecumenical reception and formation, Bishop Myers presents an approach to teaching the practical and theological aspects of ecumenism in a way that is both holistic and pragmatic and offers the potential to raise up a new generation of church leaders who are also agents of reconciliation and Christian unity.

- Wed. Jan. 18, 7:00 pm at Campion College, Regina
- Thurs. Jan. 19 at 7:00 pm at St. Thomas More College, Saskatoon

Both lectures will be presented in-person and livestreamed, and each lecture will be unique, so please plan to view or attend both if you can. If you can't attend, watch it online at youtube.com/@schmeisercentre

8 Days of online Biblical Reflection, January 18-25, 2023

This Bible Study series will also be available on YouTube at youtube.com/@PrairieCentreforEcumenism

Presented on Zoom by the Prairie Centre for Ecumenism and the Regina Council of Churches.

The 2023 theme for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, "Do good; seek justice" (Isaiah 1:17), was prepared by the Minnesota Council of Churches. The themes for each day should be familiar to everyone who lives in Canada. The issues facing the churches in the United States affect us because of their proximity to our borders and as they relate to our present situation in Canada.

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples.

TF331: Hell and Evangelization with Mark Hornbacher - Part 1

This week Brett sits down with Mark Hornbacher of the St. Paul Street Evangelization Apostolate to discuss Hornbacher's critiques of Brett's Church Life Journal article "Hell is Good News."

Show Snippet: "This is, in response to, some debates in popular Catholicism around the efforts of people like Bishop Baron and the theology of Hans Urs von Balthasar, and at least some people say this idea that hell is relatively empty, or even potentially completely empty needs to be gotten rid of, not primarily because it's not true, which we can't actually know whether it's true or not. But because it will diminish our motivation for evangelization."

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee.

Did you know... There are 25 First Nations reserves located in Treaty 4 territory in Saskatchewan and all of them are within the boundaries of the Archdiocese of Regina. The reserve system is governed by the Indian Act of 1876 which was never part of the treaty promises. First Nations agreed to share the land with the newcomers. They did not agree to have it divided into tracts of land called reserves. The Nehiyawak, Anishinabek, Dakota, Lakota, and Nakota First Nations peoples lived in this territory for thousands of years.
