Jesus is describing God's immeasurable generosity when He says in today's Gospel: "Whoever asks, receives; whoever seeks, finds; whoever knocks, is admitted." But it should also be the description of us as Christian stewards – those seeking to follow Christ by using our gifts in service to others.

THINK ABOUT IT

Parliament passed a motion in 2014 calling for a pan-Canadian palliative and end-of-life care strategy "ensuring all Canadians have access to high quality home-based and hospice palliative end-of-life care." Our nation needs to act on this so that all Canadians have timely access to quality palliative care.

As we continue our journey through this Year of Mercy, perhaps we could take some time this month to consider how we might live out this spiritual work of mercy:

Instructing:

- ◆ Commit yourself to learning about the Catholic Faith and share your understanding of the faith with others and with those who welcome it;
- ◆ Share your insights, knowledge and skills with others, especially friends, fellow students, coworkers;
- ◆ Take time to "tutor" those who are just beginning tasks;
- ◆ read good literature and encourage others to do the same.
