Show favor, O Lord, to your servants and mercifully increase the gifts of your grace, that, made fervent in hope, faith and charity, they may be ever watchful in keeping your commands. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom."-Matthew 13:24, 37-3

As children of God, we are all "good seeds". We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world.

We fulfill God's plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others and share our financial gifts to help build God's kingdom on earth. Through our example of gratitude and generosity we sow "good seeds" on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven!

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee.

Did you know... The Key First Nation is a Nahkawe (Saulteaux) band located 15 kms south of Norquay with a population of approximately 1500 members who reside on and off reserve. Chief Ow-tah-pee-ka-kaw (He who Unlocks or The Key) signed an adhesion to Treaty four on September 24, 1875. In 1954, Gwen O'Soup was elected chief, the first Indigenous woman in Canada to hold this position. Due to federal and provincial government policies on child welfare, many children were taken away from their families and placed in non-Indigenous foster homes where these children experienced physical and sexual abuse and other abuses. The Key Nation is addressing the systemic failure in child welfare cbc.ca/news/canada/british-columbia/saskatchewan-key-first-nation-bc-child-welfare-1.6785503 by calling for provincial governments to see Indigenous children placed in Indigenous homes.
