O God, protector of those who hope in you, without whom nothing has firm foundation, nothing is holy, bestow in abundance your mercy upon us and grant that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may use the good things that pass in such a way as to hold fast even now to those that ever endure. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" John 6:9

The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God. All of our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason. No gift is too small or insignificant

We welcome Father Kevin O'Byrne, L.C. who is from Regina. He is the son of Patrick and Melinda O'Byrne and brother to Crystal. Father Kevin was ordained to the Congregation of the Legionaries of Christ on April 27, 2024 in Rome at the Papal Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls. His first years of ministry began last summer in Dallas, Texas where he continues to share the love of Christ with youth and families in the same way that Christ was shared with him.

"A vocation is a gift of grace that can be accepted or not. It is how God wants us to love Him and others in the best way possible and is our own personal path to holiness. It can only be discovered in deep personal prayer, closeness to Christ in the Eucharist, in the gospels, and closeness to His Mother Mary." – Father Kevin O'Byrne, L.C.
