THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son...” (John 3:16)

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money, and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you “fit it in” when it’s convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

June 5, 2020

Dear parishioners & friends,

The good news is that starting June 8th, the provincial health advisory is allowing gatherings of 30 participants at church services. For weekdays, Tuesday-Saturday, there will be an adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 8 a.m. followed by Mass at 9 a.m. Furthermore, Fr. Dan is having a Saturday Mass at 6 p.m. starting tomorrow, June 6th, and an additional Mass on Sunday at 4 p.m. starting June 14th. The same protocol for attendance remains: you must call Ana (306-565-0909) at the parish office to get your names on the lists. And the same protocols will hold in the church: 6-ft. social distancing and sanitizing of pews.

We are most grateful to those who continue to support the parish financially. The donations from parishioners in May, slightly better than in April, totalled $ 29,634 (only $3000 less than what was donated in May 2019). We consider ourselves blessed in the generosity of our parishioners in this time of financial difficulty. Though we have not been gathering for Mass, donations have continued to come in through envelopes dropped off in baskets in the church, via mail, e-transfer, and automatic bank transfer.

It is, however, still worrisome that in the last five months, total revenue has amounted to $72,720 less than our prorated budget ($157, 550 vs. $230,270). Aside from a decline in collections, a good part of the shortfall is due to lack of other revenue (e.g. hall rentals, weddings, vigil lights). On the brighter side, however, our expenses to date are a bit less than anticipated, because of diminished activities in the last three months.

That does not mean that there has been no activity. The Building and Grounds Committee have been busy with repairs and maintenance, and thanks to volunteers generous with their time and expertise, at no cost to the parish. At the risk of excluding the many who have contributed to the maintenance of our church, we would like to thank Jim Nichols, Ray Plosker, Rob Chapple, Mark Scott, Greg Loziak, Paul Adekogbe and Brian Harris who worked to improve the drainage on the east side of the cathedral. Jim, Ray, and Brian, in particular, have also been repairing and installing new windows in the towers, not an easy task to say the least. Our deepest gratitude as well goes to the parishioner who donated materials and his labour in repairing parts of the ceiling around the altar and arches where there was water damage; he wants to remain anonymous.

In the next few months, there will be repairs done to the flat part of the roof over the sacristy, to the west towers, and to the stairs leading to the sacristy.

The dedication and generosity of so many in our parish illustrates the pride we all have in our place of worship and in our community.

Although we are not printing the weekly Bulletin, we are publishing it on our web-site. If you wish to read it, simply go to www.holyrosaryregina.ca

Keep well.

Yours sincerely,

Fr. Dan Rafael, Pastor

Samy McCarthy--Chair, Pastoral Council

Peace Prayer of St. Francis
Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace:
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy
O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. AMEN.

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy.
Hail our life, our sweetness and our hope!
To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.
To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears!
Turn then O most gracious Advocate, Thine eyes of mercy toward us. And after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.
O my Jesus, forgive us our sins
Save us from the fires of hell
Lead all souls to heaven
Especially those most in need of thy mercy.

Parents of young children

A prayer for our earth

All-powerful God,
you are present in the whole universe
and in the smallest of your creatures.
You embrace with your tenderness all that exists.
Pour out upon us the power of your love,
that we may protect life and beauty.
Fill us with peace, that we may live
as brothers and sisters, harming no one.
O God of the poor,
help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten
of this earth, so precious in your eyes.
Bring healing to our lives,
that we may protect the world and not prey on it,
that we may sow beauty,
not pollution and destruction.
Touch the hearts
of those who look only for gain
at the expense of the poor and the earth.
Teach us to discover the worth of each thing,
to be filled with awe and contemplation,
to recognize that we are profoundly united
with every creature
as we journey towards your infinite light.
We thank you for being with us each day.
Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.

Prayer by Pope Francis, from the encyclical, Laudato Si'.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son..." (John 3:16)

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money, and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.
