"Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you." Genesis 12:1 God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness, and greed. Yet, God promises to show us a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful."

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE: The Courage to Create Hope

To delegates at the 4th World Meeting of Popular Movements, Pope Francis said, "...you have the ability and the courage to create hope where there appears to be only waste and exclusion." These are the words that inspired the choice of "Create Hope" as a five-year guiding theme at Development and Peace – Caritas Canada.

The courage to Create Hope is rooted in actions big and small. For to drive away anguish and despair, it is best to act. Every action we take has a positive effect on us, our neighbours, our great human family, our children and their descendants. What will you do this Lent to Create Hope? Join our campaign at devp.org/lent.

2nd Sunday of Lent

A Word About Trauma...

Trauma and associated words are being used more now than ever. Do we know the origins of these words? Are their meanings different now than when they were first used? Each week we will explore a trauma-associated word's origins, meanings and evolution.

Anxiety

anx-i-e·ty/ aNG'zīədē/ a noun.

Noted in the early 16th century: from French anxiété or Latin anxietas, from anxius. In the 17th century, Robert Burton described anxiety as the anatomy of melancholy. In the 18th century, Panic attacks and generalized anxiety disorder may be recognized as "panophobias." The DSM-V anxiety is defined as the anticipation of future threats; it is distinguished from fear, and it is the emotional response to a real or perceived imminent threat.

Anxiety is a feeling of fear, dread, and uneasiness, typically about an imminent event or something with an uncertain outcome, or a mental condition characterized by excessive apprehensiveness about real or perceived threats, typically leading to avoidance behaviours. Anxiety or feeling anxious may arise before a test when important decisions are to be made, or when faced with difficulties at home or work and can be a normal stress reaction. This might cause a feeling of restlessness, sweating, feeling tension, or result in a rapid heartbeat. Difficult experiences in childhood, adolescence or adulthood are common triggers for anxiety problems. Going through stress and trauma when you're very young is likely to have a huge impact. Experiences that can trigger anxiety problems include physical or emotional abuse.

Development and Peace: a movement of solidarity

Established in 1967, Development and Peace — Caritas Canada is the official international solidarity organization of the Catholic Church in Canada.

We partner with organizations in the Global South that promote alternatives to unjust social, political and economic structures and support women in their quest for equality and justice. With the help of our 11,000+ volunteer members, we inform Canadians about the root causes of impoverishment and mobilize them to act for change. Our Lenten campaign, People and Planet First, offers you the opportunity to help protect vulnerable communities and ecosystems from corporate abuse. ### TF338: CRISPR, BioTechnology and Catholic Ethics with Ethicist Sr. Zoe Bernatsky - Part 2
