“For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be God’s will than for doing evil.” 1 Peter 3:17

The old line says, “if you want to make God laugh, tell him your plans.” Many of us are diligent in our planning and making sure things are progressing smoothly. Then disaster strikes, we don’t get the result we anticipated or an unforeseen problem arises. Many times, we may respond negatively and ask, “Why me? I did everything right!” Here’s the thing – adversity humbles us and reminds us of our dependence on God and not on our own self-reliance. Rest assured, God has a better plan in store for you.

6th Sunday of Easter

A Word About Trauma...

Trauma and associated words are being used more now than ever. Do we know the origins of these words? Are their meanings different now than when they were first used? Each week we will explore a trauma-associated word's origins, meanings and evolution.

Trigger 'trɪɡ.ə(r) (verb)

In recent use, especially psychological, "to cause an intense and usually negative emotional reaction. A trigger can be anything that sparks a memory of a trauma or a part of a trauma. When you encounter a trigger, memories and thoughts associated with the trauma come back without warning. You cannot stop the intrusive thoughts, and in response, you feel a turn in your emotions and begin to react. Triggers are sensory reminders that cause painful memories or certain symptoms to resurface. If you experienced a traumatic event, you likely remember certain sounds, smells, or sights related to that experience.

TF348: Mental Health in the Bible: David, Elijah, Job, and Paul

This week, Deacon Eric breaks open sacred scripture seeking biblical models for navigating mental health challenges. He discusses, David, Elijah, Job, and Paul and how their experiences can provide guidance and support for our own challenges today.

Show Snippet: "How often depression, especially in the face of feeling as though we have done all the "right" things, leaves us to self-isolation and that desire to "sleep it all away." God enters into Elijah's depression as a friend, offering some words of comfort (though not a solution), a bit of food, and an invitation to rest for a bit. God's angelic messenger gave him strength and renewed his purpose, showing Elijah he was not alone."

LESSON TWENTY TWO

Is there a contradiction between Faith and Science?

Videos: archregina.sk.ca/group/catechetical-support-parishes/

Catechism Text: CCC #'s 159, 283 & 284

Sacred Scripture: Jeremiah 31.35-36, James 1.17, Genesis 1.28, Psalm 111.2

Pope Leo XIII: "The Church and her Pastors are not opposed to true and solid science, whether human or divine, but that they embrace it, encourage it, and promote it with the fullest possible dedication."

Pope Benedict XVI: The Salt of the Earth, 1997: "Art along with science is the highest gift God has given."

St. John Paul II: "Science can purify religion from error and superstition; religion can purify science from idolatry and false absolutes."

FAQ: Who collaborates within the process of adaptation and inculturation of the Catechism?

The Catechism is intended primarily for bishops, so their leadership in the process of inculturation is decisive. Under the grace and guidance of the Holy Spirit, the bishops are joined by pastors, catechists, authors, editors, and publishers as well as local communities within dioceses.

Reverence For Life Prayer

O Mary, to you do we entrust the cause of life.
Look down O Mother upon the vast number of babies not born, on the poor whose lives are made difficult, on those who are victims of brutal violence, on the elderly and sick killed by indifference or misguided mercy.

We ask for the grace to accept the Gospel of Life as a gift ever new, and the courage to bear witness to it. To the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life.
Amen!
