O God, who by the mystery of today's great feast sanctify your whole Church in every people and nation, pour out, we pray, the gifts of the Holy Spirit across the face of the earth and, with the divine grace that was at work when the Gospel was first proclaimed, fill now once more the hearts of believers. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

"To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good." 1 CORINTHIANS 12:7

To receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit, you must open your heart and invite Him in! Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your thoughts, words, and actions every day! Be grateful for all the gifts God has given you! Regardless of our individual circumstances, God has given all of us many blessings. What we do with those gifts is our gift back to God! By generously sharing everything we have and everything we are, we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered," and our lives truly reflect God's light, love, and mercy.

A Word About Trauma...

Trauma and associated words are being used more now than ever. Do we know the origins of these words? Are their meanings different now than when they were first used? Each week we will explore a trauma-associated word's origins, meanings and evolution.

Depression: de-pres-sion duh-preh-shn

The term depression was derived from the Latin verb deprimere, "to press down." From the 14th century, "to depress" meant to subjugate or to bring down in spirits. In the 15 century, as meaning dejection, a state of sadness, a sinking of spirits. In 1905 it became psychology and was used in 1826 with a specific application. Depression is common globally; it is estimated that 5% of adults suffer from the disorder. It is characterized by persistent sadness and a lack of interest or pleasure in previously rewarding or enjoyable activities.

TF# 350: Talking to Your Kids About Sex - Part 1

Deacon Eric and Dr. Brett get together this week to discuss one of life's trickiest topics; talking to our kids about sex. When do you start? How do you broach the subject?

What do you say? It could be an example to follow or a cautionary tale, but it is sure to be interesting!

Show Snippet: So one of the things that we do in our family, and this especially because we have a range of ages and we're having conversations where there are people who are five are in the room, and people who are older in the room, we've developed a set of coded language. It works really well because it's ambiguous enough that it says something true that a five-year-old can understand, but a fifteen-year-old who knows a little more about the mechanics of things can also get what it is that you're saying.

Did you know... Peepeekisis First Nation is a Cree band located northeast of Regina and northwest of Fort Qu'Appelle with a population of approximately 3,300 members who reside on and off the reserve. In 1896, Peepeekisis was chosen as the location of a controversial experiment aimed at creating an agrarian reserve and assimilating its members into a colonial farming lifestyle. Growing in Wisdom: Seeking Deeper Generativity

An ecumenical program, grounded in the mystical Christian Tradition, open to learning from other interfaith and spiritual traditions, and designed for those seeking to engage in their maturing years with wisdom and grace. It is a program that welcomes participants who have the time, interest, and energy to engage in a dynamic two-year adventure of learning and exploration. How do I give my life to the world? And how do I prepare for eventual illness, diminishment and death, so that my death is my final blessing to my family, community and the world? This program is rooted in the Forest Dwelling Program, Oblate School of Theology, and the ground-breaking work of Fr. Ron Rolheiser OMI. The program involves four 5-day intensives (September and February) over two years, monthly meetings with other participants in Elder Circles, a monthly meeting with a spiritual director, and optional monthly book studies. The Growing in Wisdom program is primarily offered on zoom. Applications are now being accepted for the September 2023 – June 2025 program. For more information, please visit our website growinginwisdom.ca. You are welcome to direct your questions to Nancy Phillips, Coordinator, email: growinginwisdom@outlook.com
