Grant us, we pray, O Lord our God, the constant gladness of being devoted to you, for it is full and lasting happiness to serve with constancy the author of all that is good. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

"...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us." 2 Thessalonians 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

SACRAMENTAL PREP 2022-2023

Sacramental classes are on Monday evenings at 7:00 pm in the parish hall. Parents will be notified of any changes.

ARCHBISHOP APPEAL 2022

 This brochure for the 2022 Appeal highlights the many ministries made possible by your donation. Every program, every ministry, and every outreach initiative is a chance for our Archdioceses to grow and foster relationships in our community. Each video that has been and will be shared highlights specific programs in our Archdiocese. Let's reflect on these people and the effect of their hope in Christ. Please consider how you might honour their efforts and needs through your support of the Archbishop's Appeal.

Our Parish Goal is $50,765. To date, HRC Parish has raised $8,790 or 17.31%.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

PRE-CHRISTMAS RUMMAGE SALE

Friday, November 25, from 1 pm to 8 pm

Saturday, November 26, from 9 am to 4 pm

Sunday, November 27, from 12 pm to 4 pm

If you have things to donate, drop them off by Thursday, November 24, 12 pm to 7 pm. In the same way as last time, we will ask you to do pre-sorting so that we can quickly put things where they should go. For example, put all the toys in the same box and all the kitchenware in a different box. We will ask you to take the treasures to the different tables. This will help in speeding up our organizing and pricing. We are asking for volunteers too! Please call Bernadette at 306-525-0049 landline or 306-537-4158 mobile. Invite everyone you know to come!

SMALL BUSINESS FAIR

It will be on Sunday, December 4, one hour before and one hour after all three Masses. Light refreshments will be available. This is a perfect opportunity for our parish community to get to know and support our own parishioners in their business endeavours. If you have a small business, come join us. The setup will be Saturday afternoon, December 3. All businesses will have their name put into a draw for a one-hour confidential business consultation with a business expert about the topic of your choice to grow your business. For more information, call Bernadette at 306-525-0049 landline or 306-537-4158 mobile. On November 13, at all three Masses, there will be a volunteer sign-up sheet for the rummage sale and business fair.

GREY CUP SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 20

On Sunday, November 20, the Grey Cup will be in our neighbourhood. Please welcome all visitors! Also, the last parking fundraiser of the year will take place. 100% of the proceeds will go toward Refugee Sponsorship. The west parking lot will be for game parking, as will the Catholic School Board Office parking (we have their permission). The large east parking lot will be saved for 7:00 pm Mass-goers. That lot will be monitored until 5:00 pm, when the game starts, to direct game parkers to the other two lots. Thank you for both your support and your patience!

Oktoberfest 2022 was another great success!
Thank you to our 150 guests! We were able to fundraise over $3,700.00 for the Cathedral's Buildings and Grounds fund to support the continued upkeep of our beautiful Cathedral Church. Charlotte's catering provided an amazing meal and both bands, Vision and Sed Contra, inspired us and got us to our feet to dance for a great cause.

A very special thank you to the following businesses and persons who donated to our Silent Auction:

Campion College, Samy McCarthy, Succulicious Studio, Cathedral Social Hall, Viet Thai, Pile O'Bones, Dessart Sweets, Gale's Florist, Shannon's Pub, Butcher Boy Meats, Sinfully Sweet, Burns Hanley, Bodhi Tree Yoga, Groovy Mama, Iannone's Footwear & Shoe Clinic, Gary Lazo of Taylor Lexus Automotive, Dairy Queen, Pampered Chef (Gina Quon), Dove House, Fairfield Inn and Suites, and Sed Contra.

Finally, thank you to the many volunteers who made this all possible. It would not have happened without you.

CSA Education Committee

Over the last two years, many of the educational events that the Core Working Group has provided have been done through zoom. Although the pandemic is still with us, we are now in a position to meet in person. To this end, the Core Working Group has re-established an educational committee to oversee, coordinate and arrange workshops and presentations on a variety of topics around clergy sexual abuse. Should you have any questions or would like to discuss potential opportunities, we would invite you to contact the education committee at csaeducation@archregina.sk.ca.

Grief and Loss Accompaniment Workshop

There are many different kinds of Grief and Loss. Loss of relationships, loss of a loved one, ambiguous loss, and shattered assumptions. When people are in the middle of suffering a significant loss, there are many emotions to deal with. We will explore and look at how to accompany someone during this emotional time in their life. The workshop will focus on the language of accompaniment. Please join us on Saturday, November 19 from 1-5 pm via zoom. You can register by emailing victimserviceadvocacy@gmail.com.

Archbishops Appeal

In the ravages of wars and global crises, it might be tempting to ask the question of whether the end times are happening. As a people of faith, we believe in the second coming of Christ, but until he comes again, what should we do? That is the question posed to Jesus in the Gospel. But Jesus instructs that many people will say the end is coming, but we should be firm in our conviction that to be a people of faith means to be trusting that Jesus knows what he is doing.

We encounter this trusting relationship in our parishes. When we gather for Mass, we listen to the scriptures, encounter and wrestle with the tensions of our lives, and then something miraculous happens: Christ comes to us! When we receive the Eucharist, our souls are nourished, and Christ supports us in our lives until he comes again to the entire world. Your support to the Annual Appeal directly helps parish ministries and the education of clergy and lay people. Please continue to be generous so that our parishes receive the resources and personnel to effectively spread the Good News and support our communities. For more information or to donate, visit archregina.sk.ca/groupage/archbishops-appeal/itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...') Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee. Did you know... the TRC's call to action #60 calls upon the four Settlement Agreement churches [Roman Catholic, Anglican, Presbyterian, Methodist] to begin allocating funds for community-based healing and reconciliation projects. In response, the Archdiocese of Regina has established a TRC Healing Committee, comprised of Indigenous and non-Indigenous members to seek concrete ways of carrying this out.

LESSON FOUR – Cracking the Catechism Code!

What is a brief history of the Catechism?

Many scholars think the first known Catechism was the Didaché. Also known as the Teaching of the Twelve Apostles, possibly written in the 2nd century AD. From an unknown author, the text survived as one manuscript with only 16 chapters, appearing to be the teachings written directly from apostolic preaching and perhaps the first Christian literary text and oldest catechism. Didaché is the Greek word that means “teaching”. The current Catechism of the Catholic Church originated from a Synod of Bishops in 1985. After 24,000 suggested revisions, Pope John Paul II officially approved the definitive version and publicized it on December 8th, 1992 with an apostolic constitution.

What does it mean to believe in God? Qu'est-ce que cela veut dire « croire en Dieu » ?

Secular Franciscans – A Franciscan Vocation for Catholic Women or Men, Married or Single: Do you want to be a better Catholic? Draw nearer to God? Become more Christ-like? Perhaps you have a vocation to a of men and women, married and single, who live and work in the world, but who follow a way of life that’s faithful to the original Rule written by St. Francis of Assisi, but adapted to today’s circumstances. Members of the Order find direction, inspiration, encouragement and support to reach spiritual goals in a community (fraternity) of Secular Franciscans near your community. History: In 1209, St. Francis of Assisi established the First Order of the Franciscan family (Order of Friars Minor) for men. Later with St. Clare of Assisi, he founded the Second Order (the Poor Clares), and finally in 1221, he instituted the Third Order (Secular Franciscans) for men and women who were unable to leave their homes, families, or work. What is involved: Secular Franciscans do not take vows. Instead, they make a pledge (or solemn promises) to observe for life the Rule of the Secular Franciscan Order. Admission is open to anyone who is not already a member of another religious or secular Order, who is 18 years or older, a practicing Catholic of good moral character, peace-loving and faithful to the teachings of the Church and loyal to the Apostolic See. In addition to help in leading a spiritually rich and fulfilling Christian life, members of the Secular Franciscans also share in all the merits of the world-wide Franciscan family (over one million members today), benefitting from the Masses, prayers, good works, and sacrifices of all First Order Friars, Second Order Poor Clares, Third Order Regular friars and nuns, and brother and sister Secular Franciscans. For more information: contact Paulette Matovich 1-306-561-7793.
