Psalm 33: Let your love be upon us, Lord, even as we hope in you.

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." (Mark 10:45)

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me; I have enough to share." This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

Archbishop's Appeal

James' and John's request to be given a favour by being seated at Jesus' left and right, unfortunately, is very like many of us. We often allow our egos to rule us to try and position ourselves ahead of others. We want to be in positions of power, and many of us do not handle power well. Many people who find themselves in a position of power over others use this power to bully and belittle those who are answerable to them. They have not learned that true power comes from empowering others. Jesus tells his disciples that in order "to become great among us, you must be your servant." Servant leadership is very powerful not only for the leader but for all those associated with that leader. There is an expression that should always be kept in mind, "If the choice is between being right and being kind; always choose kind."

The Archbishop's Appeal supports various programs which provide great servant leadership. One of these is Health Care Chaplaincy. The Health Care Chaplains offer spiritual support for people who find themselves hospitalized. These dedicated people visit the sick and give the support needed, whether it be someone to listen or to say a prayer. By donating to the Appeal, the Archdiocese of Regina can continue to provide this gift to those who are suffering.

Synod Opening Mass

Please join us for the opening Mass for the Synod on Synodality on Sunday, October 17 at 3:00 PM at Holy Rosary Cathedral. This Mass will be livestreamed to our YouTube Channel.

•Rabbi Jeremy Parnes is the spiritual leader of Beth Jacob Synagogue in Regina. His long involvement in multifaith and community organizations includes Regina Multifaith Forum, Habitat for Humanity, numerous City of Regina committees on social housing and homelessness, and several inner-city boards, including Youth Connexions and The Boys and Girls Clubs of Canada.

•Rev. Amanda Currie has been minister of First Presbyterian Church in Regina since 2017. She previously ministered in Saskatoon for 14 years and has recently completed a two-year term as Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. She is vice president of the Canadian Council of Churches, where she has served on the Governing Board for the past 7 years. She has convened the Ecumenical & Interfaith Committee of the Presbyterian Church and is active in numerous national and local ecumenical and interfaith initiatives.

•Imam Dr. Mohamed Masloh is the leader of the Islamic Association of Saskatchewan in Regina, an RCMP chaplain, and a teaching assistant at the University of Regina. He studied at the prestigious Al-Azhar University in Cairo and the Graduate Theological Foundation in Indiana, where he earned a Ph.D. in Islamic Studies. In these days of increased social polarization and intolerance, where racism, antisemitism, and Islamophobia appear to be increasing daily, dialogue between faith communities is an antidote to ignorance and hatred. Generosity, hospitality, and compassion are social virtues that can heal the wounds of our society.

Spiritual Motherhood of Priests Apostolate for the Archdiocese of Regina

The idea of spiritual adoption of priests, where a woman adopts a certain priest as her spiritual "son" for whom she promises to pray, is not a new one; however, it was reserved only for nuns. In 2007, the Congregation of the Clergy, with the approval of Pope Benedict XVI, invited lay women to adopt priests as their spiritual sons, and to pray for them constantly, particularly before the Blessed Sacrament. In this Spiritual Motherhood of Priests, we try to imitate our Blessed Mother Mary, the first Mother of Priests, in her humility and sacrifice. We adopt priests as our sons with the commitments of Eucharistic Adoration, daily prayers, and sacrifices to help our priest-sons give themselves to God more perfectly in being shepherds of their flocks, leading us all to heaven with them.
