Almighty ever-living God, increase our faith, hope and charity, and make us love what you command, so that we may merit what you promise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

"...for whoever exalted himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Luke 18:14. Pride and ego are the root causes of most our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things 'gods' before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember, all that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God's incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.

SACRAMENTAL PREP 2022-2023

The next Sacramental meeting will be on Monday, October 24 at 7:00 pm in the parish hall.

ANNUAL ARCHBISHOP APPEAL

Giving is a key way to deepen our faith and to grow spiritually, an opportunity to live as disciples of Jesus. In our call to serve others, we join in the work of building God's kingdom here and now. Every donation to the Archbishop's appeal helps fund the many ministries and community programs that seek to bear hope for those who need it most.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

We would like to see if there is enough interest to start running children's liturgy at the 11:00 am Mass again. If you are interested in assisting with the ministry or have any questions, please contact Miri Schiller at mirijael@hotmail.com or 306-550-7518. We would need a minimum of 4 volunteers so that commitment would be approximately once a month.

CHAS 79th ANNUAL CONVENTION

On October 27th - 28th, 2022 the Catholic Health Association of Saskatchewan will hold its 79th Annual Convention at Queen's House of Retreats in Saskatoon! Hospitality is such an important part of caring that leads to healing. This year's convention theme is Hospitality: The Link that Builds Community. We are very pleased to announce that Fr. Ron Rolheiser will be a keynote speaker. The convention will cover topics such as palliative care, addiction recovery, and care for people with dementia and it will feature panelists who will help us appreciate the steps we need to take toward reconciliation with our Indigenous and Metis sisters and brothers. Register at queenshouse.org.

Archdiocese of Regina 2021 AGM

The Annual General Meeting for 2021 will be held online on Wednesday, October 26 at 7:00 PM. To register, email mgurash@archregina.sk.ca or call 306-352-1651 ext 6734. The 2021 annual report can be read HERE.

Archdiocese of Regina Website Update

We are currently making important changes to our website. Some pages may not display properly and some links may not work. All of these issues are currently being addressed. Thank you for your patience in the coming days as we complete these updates.

TF319: A Catholic Approach To Horror Movies - Part 2

Deacon Eric and Dr. Brett continue their discussion on a Catholic approach to horror movies and the role of discernment in engaging in any kind of entertainment.

Show Snippet: "If we're starting off asking, 'How do Catholics approach horror films?'; I think that's a great summary of what we've been talking about...with discernment; good, interior discernment."

This podcast is made possible through generous donations to our Archbishop's Appeal. Donations can be made at archregina.sk.ca/giving. thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/a-catholic-approach-to-horror-movies-part-2

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Luke 18:14

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember, all that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God's incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.

Archbishops Appeal

Today is world mission Sunday, which reminds us of the missionary activity of the Church. The first reading from Sirach reminds us that God does not have any favorite people and hears the cries of the vulnerable and marginalized.

St. Paul reminds us too that even those who have no one to stand up for them are still held in the Heart of the Lord, echoing Sirach in our duty to ensure solidarity with the oppressed, the poor, the marginalized, the strangers.

The gospel hits us hard – do we sometimes want to distance ourselves from others? Do we place ourselves on a pedestal? Do we become blind to the needs of the poor and the world? We sometimes think of missionary work as being done in a country far away, detached from our lives. There are many ways of being a missionary in our communities, both in terms of our own generous response to the Lord in working in that ministry, but also in our support of those missionaries near and far. Through the Annual Appeal, your contributions are used to help support the missionary activity of the Church. We need to reach out to those that have not heard the Good News of the Gospel, and your support helps make this a reality.

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program

We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information on how to register, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 ext 6724 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

"I had heard about the program for many years, but I didn't apply until a parishioner returned from Formation weekends, glowing with joy. I found it wonderful to spend time with other Catholics who were also interested in learning more about the faith – I looked forward to every session with first-rate presenters!"

Heather Deis,
St. Cecilia Parish, Regina

At Lay Formation we are passionate about:

- Becoming More Deeply Aware of God's personal love and activity in our lives.*
- Encountering Jesus Christ, discovering his plan of sheer goodness for us, and deepening our relationship with Him.*
- More Intentionally integrating our faith in our daily life and service to Christ.*
- Receiving the Spiritual and Formational Tools we need to follow Christ's commission to "Go and make disciples of all nations" (Matt 28:19)*

"The Lay Formation program was a very rich opportunity for me to learn the Catechism I felt I missed in my early years. Along with a better foundation to understanding our faith, the many wonderful experiences in spirituality and prayer enriched me greatly, and have given me new pathways for my journey with God."

Bob Whildal,
Holy Child Parish, Regina

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples.

The Catechism: from zero to hero in 3 minutes! Is the Catechism of the Catholic Church a “universal Catechism”?

Yes, because it is to be used as the reference point for all local catechisms throughout the Universal Church. In an earlier draft, the Catechism of the Catholic Church was titled the Catechism of the Universal Church, but never used. Local catechisms are created according to the needs of a specific culture, age, spiritual life, social and ecclesial conditions. The current Catechism of the Catholic Church was given by Saint John Paul II on the 30th anniversary of Vatican II on October 11th, 1992 and 2022 marked the 60th anniversary.

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means ‘the word’ or ‘as it is said...’)

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee.

Did you know... Treaty 4 also gave newcomers many freedoms not allowed in the countries of their birth, such as freedom to own land, to worship without persecution, to become self-sufficient, to protest without fear of retaliation, to make a good living off the land and resources, etc. This remains true for newcomers to Canada today. First Nation had all these freedoms prior to the arrival of the newcomers, however, many of these freedoms were taken away after Treaty 4 was made and the Indian Act of 1876 was imposed on Indigenous peoples. Their lands were taken away which led to the inability to make a sustainable living. The land was to be shared, not taken away.

Camp Monahan’s Christmas Dinner is back!

2022 Wicahitowin Indigenous Engagement Conference

November 28 and 29. This year, the 2022 Wicahitowin Conference will centre on the Indigenous principle of witnessing or bearing witness. In keeping with the oral traditions of Indigenous Peoples, witnesses are called upon to be the keepers of history when an event of historic significance occurs. This act—one which holds great responsibility—also helps validate, legitimize, and recognize the importance of conducting business in a good way while building and maintaining relationships. Attendees of the 8th Wicahitowin Conference, will be asked to retain and care for the teachings they witness and experience and, most importantly, to share it with those within their personal and professional communities.

Register TODAY to listen and learn from Survivors and experts, including the Truth and Reconciliation Commissioners The Honourable Murray Sinclair, Grand Chief Wilton Littlechild, and Dr. Marie Wilson, along with Chief Cadmus Delorme and others who are leading the way in reconciliACTION. The Wicahitowin conference is for everyone, so mark your calendars and visit www.wicahitowin.ca to register to attend in-person at TCU place in Saskatoon or online from wherever you are.
